HEAVY GOODS.

THE BEST $2.00 HIGH MEN'S SHOE.

This shoe is made of selected veal with two full soles and tap, solid leather insole and counter, and is high enough to protect you from the mud. We have seen nearly all the lines of men's $2.00 high shoes in the country and this shoe is worth fully 25c a pair more than any other shoe we ever saw at this price.

THE BEST MEN'S $2.00 BOOT

This is the best split boot made in this country and retailed for $2.00. It will come nearer to keeping the feet warm and dry than any other boot we know of. We buy direct from the manufacturers—not through jobbers—and this boot is worth ordinarily just 50c more than we sell it for.

THE BEST MEN'S $2.50 KIP BOOT.

Here is another boot that we are selling for 5c under price. We doubt if there is another store in Kentucky at which you can buy a genuine whole stock front and back boot for less than $3.00. Try it and see.

THE BEST $2.00 SEAMLESS SHOE.

We were the first in Frankfort to sell seamless shoes—the only shoe that will not rip in the mud—and the one we have this year is made of genuine heavy kangaroo calf with extra good soles and is a shoe that you can not equal elsewhere for less than $2.25.

THE BEST BOY'S $1.50 SEAMLESS SHOE

You know what it takes to stand a boy in the mud. Here is a shoe that will do it. All sizes from 13 to 5½, made of extra heavy kangaroo grain stock, with plump soles protected by steel nails and just 25c a pair cheaper than you can find a similar shoe for elsewhere.

THE BEST BOY'S $2.25 HIGH SHOE.

This is just the best boy's shoe that we ever saw. It has better upper leather, better sole leather, and is made better in every way. Try a pair on your boy this winter and see.

THE BEST $1.50 WOMEN'S HEAVY SHOE.

This shoe is made of genuine colt skin, a leather that is as soft as kid and that will wear as well as the heaviest grain leather. We have it in all styles, it is exclusive with us and is absolutely the best woman's heavy weight shoe we know anything about.

THE BEST GIRL'S $1.00 AND $1.25 SHOES.

These are made of kangaroo calf with absolutely solid leather soles and insoles. They are made to wear and will wear and they are cheap.

THE BEST $7.00 SUITS AND OVERCOATS.

These are strictly all wool, are made with good linings, well sewed, and will wear. Two patterns in suits especially made of an extra heavy piece of goods are the best suits we ever sold for $7.50.

THE BEST $10 AND $12 SUITS AND OVERCOATS.

Suits and overcoats at this price are remarkable for their appearance, fit, and wearing qualities.

THE BEST $3.50 CORDUROY PANTS.

The famous Newburgh pants which we sell at this price have no equal anywhere. A positive guarantee goes with every pair.

THE BEST 50c UNDERWEAR.

We have purchased this fall a case of regular 75c underwear—see lined—at a price which enables us to sell it at 50c a garment as long as it lasts. But there will be no more of it after this case is gone, so come quick.

THE BEST $1 JEANS PANTS.

Ours are guaranteed not to rip and the jeans in them is good—will wear you as long as you want them to.

THE BEST 35c SHIRTS.

We have a lot of about 35 dozen men's and boy's shirts, made of genuine woven madras—the same goods you find in 50c shirts which we are selling for 35c. These shirts are distinctly under price.

These are only some of the many articles in our store which are bargains and with them all goes the guarantee that has made our reputation, "You must get your money's worth."

ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE.

On Saturday last an attempt was made to assassinate Mr. Wm. Kissinger, manager of the lead mines near Switzer. He was fired upon from ambush, but luckily escaped injury. Again on Sunday an attempt was made to poison him.

It is about time the dastards who are committing these outrages should be brought to book.

EXTENDED THE TIME.

At a called meeting of the City Council, held on Wednesday morning, the time in which the street railroad company was required to commence operations was extended from November 7th to January 1st.

NEW DRUG COMPANY.

The Frankfort Drug Co. has purchased the drug store of Dr. S. B. Holmes, corner of Main and St. Clair streets, and have taken possession. This is one of the best stands in the city and has always commanded a large trade. The names of the members of the company have not been given out as yet. Dr. Frank W. Keyes is in charge at present.

DISSOLVED.

The big grocery firm of Saffell & Son has been dissolved. Mr. Jas. M. Saffell retiring and Mr. Chas. W. Saffell continuing the business.

Old mother Nature has never been improved upon—sometimes she needs a little assistance over hard places though.

But when we assist her, the nearer we keep to her own methods and processes the better. Sometimes the digestive organs need help; we have indigestion. Pepsin is what nature has selected to do the work in the stomach; hence, the best help to digestion is pepsin. The pleasantest and most beneficial way to take pepsin is with pure port wine, as combined in Walther's Peptonized Port, and sold by J. W. Gayle, Frankfort, Ky., in that form. The port is itself a valuable tonic. Small size 50 cents, large size $1.00.

PASSES $30,000 MARK.

During the past week the fund being raised by the Kentucky Exhibit Association for the erection of the Kentucky Building and display of the State's products and resources at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition in St. Louis next year, climbed to $31,000. The latest subscriptions include several contributions from banks in different parts of the State, brewers, the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse Co., and business firms and corporations generally. The Madison Fiscal Court appropriated $20 to supplement a very handsome private subscription list raised in and around Richmond, while the Fayette Fiscal Court added $500 to the $2,200 from individual sources in Lexington.

ROBBED THE GRAVE.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in a awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day."

"Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at all drug stores.

GERMAN SYRUP.

We want to impress on our readers that Roscoe's German Syrup is positively the only preparation on the market to-day that does relieve and cure consumption. It contains the specific, such as pectoral extracts of gums, etc., which have been so highly endorsed for the cure of coughs, colds and consumption by the great medical congresses. The consumptive, whether his disease is in the throat or lungs, must have rest at night, and be free from the spasms of dry and racking cough in the morning. The diseased parts want rest, healing and soothing treatment, and the patient needs fresh air, good food, etc. German Syrup will give free and easy expectation in the morning with speedy and permanent relief. Small bottles, 25 cents; regular size, containing nearly four times as much, 75 cents. At all drug stores.

FRANKFORT, OCT. 31, 1903.

FORMER FRANKFORT MAN DIES IN WASHINGTON CITY.

On Thursday last Mr. John J. Wright died in Washington City, aged 70 years. In the ante bellum days Mr. Wright was well known in this city, where he was a clerk in the Postoffice under the late Mr. B. F. Johnson (father of Mr. Sam D. Johnson).

Mr. Wright was born near White Sulphur, in Scott county, and grew to young manhood there. Later he came to this city to accept a clerkship in the Postoffice as conditor with Mr. James M. Withrow.

After several years service Mr. Wright was transferred to Washington City and assigned to duty in the Postoffice Department.

At the breaking out of the Civil War Mr. Wright, who was a Southern sympathizer, resigned and came to Louisville. Later he entered the whiskey business as a wholesale dealer, the firm being Wright & Taylor. They did a large business until failing health forced Mr. Wright to retire.

In 1897 Mr. Wright lost his wife, who was a Miss Sallie Clark, of Richmond, Va. In 1902 he removed, with his only child, Miss May B. Wright, to Washington City, and was residing there when the last summer came.

He was a genial, upright and honorable gentleman, sincere and straightforward in all his dealings. We knew him from our boyhood and gladly claim him as our friend. Only our older citizens remember him as a rosy cheeked youth, and polite and attentive clerk.

A SEA STORY BY A WRITER WHO HATES AND DREADS THE SEA.

"The Breath of the North," is the title of Norman Duncan's latest story in the November McClure's of the man who goes down to the sea in ships to wrest from it a meager subsistence, in struggle with the malevolence of the elements. Mr. Duncan says that he himself hates and dreads the sea, and that to these Newfoundland fisher folk it is "a terrible monster, a cruel and dread foe. They who maintain the sovereignty of the race on the edge of the uninhabitable live by grace of heavy courage." The fisherman of this story brings his boat in the face of death, through wind and wave, to the home lights. The closing lines of the story have a flavor of Whitman's poetry.

"These are the things that mock you—this of the north. The wind on the sheep's back at the time of shearing, the running hands of the women the swift, tireless hands of the old women at the loom. And O wind of the north, the rosy cheeks of children melt you, that all the hands of the north. Though you sweep from the very waste of death from the night, silent and hidden to ravage the sea and the land, these things mock you. For, wind of the north, where love is, there is content."

FRANKFORT, KY.

(Delayed Letter.)

We are having beautiful weather at present. The flowers are blooming yet.

Mr. Duane Sudduth took in the races at Lexington last Friday.

Miss Mittie Mitchell has been quite ill for several days with malaria fever and heart trouble.

Mrs. Arlene Moore is very much indisposed at present.

The school at Mt. Zion is progressing nicely under the skillful management of its efficient teacher, Miss Etta Allison. It is reported that Miss Etta has the largest number of pupils in attendance of any teacher in the whole precinct.

Mr. J. R. Hales, of Carter county, was in Frankfort a few days last week, attending to business, and came out and spent Thursday night with the family of Mr. Wm. H. Sudduth.

A few Sunday evenings since a widower who resides at Zilpah, came to Benson to attend Sunday-school, and from that point took his best girl to Indian Ford to church that night. Then saw her home, of course, down on Benson, whence back to his home at Zilpah, making a drive of some thirty-five miles in a few hours. We certainly think the widower is matrimonially inclined.

As we were going to your city, a few days ago, our horse became dreadfully frightened at a lot of old mill machinery, and we learned that it is intended to rebuild the old sawmill again, which is much to be regretted, for the reason that it is next to impossible to get a horse by when it is in operation, and is considered, by ladies especially, as a very dangerous place to pass. It seems to us that a more suitable place might be selected. As there is no chance of getting around, we consider it a disadvantage to the city, so I guess we will have to limit our horses to a half mile from the city and foot it. Those not able to do that will have to stay home.

The Ladies Aid Society are having a new coat of paint put on their church.

Miss Ona Mitchell has about recovered from her recent illness.

Mrs. Lizzie Showalter spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister Mrs. Willie Stingers, near Polsgrove's Landing.

Mrs. Mollie Vaughn, of Olive Hill, who has been visiting in our town, has returned home.

Mrs. Long, better known as Aunt Frankie Mitchell, is a great sufferer with cancer of the mouth, which has already destroyed her upper lip. May the Lord sustain her in her great afflictions.

There was a lecture and graphophone entertainment at Mt. Zion schoolhouse Tuesday night.

BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXIONS.

Are spoiled by using any kind of preparation that fills the pores of the skin. The best way to secure a clear complexion, free from pimples, eruptions, blotches, etc., is to keep the liver in good order. An occasional dose of Herbine will cleanse the bowels, regulate the liver, and so establish a clear, healthy complexion. See at Paul B. Weitzel's.

A PERFECT PAINLESS PILL

is the one that will cleanse the system, set the liver to function, remove the bile, clear the complexion, cure headache and bring a good taste in the mouth. The famous little pills for doing such work pleasantly and effectually are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. John M. W. of Lafayette, Ind., says: "All other pills I have used gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers are simply perfect." Sold by J. W. Gayle.

JAWS

Tightly Locked From Nervous Spasms.

Physicians Could Not Prevent Fits.

Dr. Miles' Nerve Cure My Wife.

Dr. Miles' Nerve Cure has been successfully tried in thousands of cases of nervous disorders, but never has it made a better record than when used in the treatment of fits or spasms. Thousands of testimonials prove this, and in nearly every instance the writer has stated that the fits ceased after the first dose of Nerve Cure was given. The statement is repeated in the following:

"Seven years ago my wife commenced having spasms or fits and I called in a home physician and he said she was paralyzed. He rubbed her with salt water and gave her calomel and she eventually got some better, but in a short time she had another attack. She was confined to her bed for three months and the doctor could not help her. She had fits frequently, sometimes very severe. Her hands would cramp so we could not open them and she finally got so her jaws would become locked. Finally I saw the doctor was doing her good and ordered a bottle of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve Cure. She took it and was cured. She has taken a number of bottles but has never had a fit since taking the first dose. She also thinks very highly of Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills and is never without them. If there is any way of making this testimonial stronger do so because of the good the Dr. Miles Restorative Nerve Cure did my wife."—Wm. V. ALLEN, Jr., M. E. Elkins, Miss.

MAKING RAPID PROGRESS.

Kentucky Building is Already Half Completed—Will be Furnished by the New Year.

Reports from World's Fair grounds at St. Louis are most encouraging as to the progress being made on the Kentucky State Building. The contractors announce that it is sixty per cent. completed. It is entirely under roof and plastering has begun. Indications now point to its completion about Christmas. It will be turned over to the Directors of the Kentucky Exhibit Association between the New Year and February 1, when active preparations for furnishing this "New Kentucky Home" will begin. At the meeting of the Directors of the Association last week, an additional appropriation of $500 for four hundred extra electric lights, making in all about six hundred, was voted. This will easily make the Kentucky Building one of the most brilliantly illuminated on the ground.

CASTORIA. The Kind You Want Always Bought. Bear the Signature of J. C. Watson.

DO YOU WANT TO YAWN? Feel cold shiverings, aching in the bones, lack of energy, headache, and great depression? These symptoms may be followed by violent headache, high fever, extreme nervousness, a condition known as malaria. Herbine cures it. Take it before the disease gets a fair hold, though it will work a cure in any stage. J. A. Hughes, Manchester, Conn., writes, "I have used your cold medicine, Herbine, for several years. There is nothing better for malaria, chills and fever, headache, biliousness, and for a blood-purifying tonic, there is nothing as good." See at Paul B. Weitzel's.

PEA RIDGE.

(Delayed Letter.)

On Sunday, Oct. 18th, Mr. William Lacey, Jr., were married to Miss Cleveland Smith. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. J. J. J. at the Harvickland Methodist Church, at 6 p. m. The happy young couple were accompanied to Harvickland by his uncle, Mr. Chester Lacey, Mr. Sam Lacey and wife, Miss Jennie Lacey, Mr. Dorsey Tracey, Mrs. Florence Tracey, Mrs. Jennie Tracey, sister of the bride; also by Mrs. Smith, the bride's widowed mother, two young Mr. Smiths and Mr. Ben Tracey. The bridesmaids, on their return, were entertained by Mr. Sam Lacey and wife, where supper was served.

We are all agreeing with the Roundabout item of last week that the militia boys went up against the "real thing" at Camp Young, as several came home quite prostrated. We think there ought to be some provision made for those who come home sick and disabled, just as much as if they were in real war. It is very discouraging for a young man to be called away from a good job of work and then, added to this, to come home sick and use up his savings, and that of his friends, for medicine and doctor bills, to say nothing of all his pain, suffering and the anxiety of friends. At least the doctor's bill and medicine ought to be paid for by the State. Let those who are interested in the martial honor of our State, see to it that the young men, the flower of our State, who are ready and have to go to the front, to quiet riots, protect criminals and do anything else their officers command.

Mr. Leslie Tracey and wife are the guests of his father, Mr. Joe Tracey.

Miss Ann Tracey, who has been quite sick, is better.

Mrs. John Tracey still remains quite sick.

Several of our neighbors have been attending the protracted meeting at Graceland.

Some young people, on their way to a party at Mr. Bradley's, near Graceland, were stopped by a man called on Mr. Sam Lacey for assistance, who cordially responded. The vehicle being patched, the gay young people proceeded on their way.

Miss Jennie Laceyfield was the guest of Miss Edith Edge one evening this week.

Mr. Chester Laceyfield and Mr. Dorsey Tracey, with harp and guitar, have been making sweet music among their neighbors. Guess they are lousome since the wedding.

Mr. Leslie Tracey has returned from Camp Young. We are sorry to add, that one side, particularly one foot, is so much affected by the cold and wet days at Camp Young, as to be almost useless.

Mr. Marshall Suter came home sick from Camp Young, and has been confined to his bed since, with fever up to 100.

Miss Myrtle Lacey is still very ill at her home.

The school children of this district were pleased with the gift of waterproof school bags, which were given or sent to them by the firm of Gratcher & Simpson. This is not the first time this enterprising firm have remembered the little ones.

Miss Edith Edge and brother, John Edger, Jr., were among the guests and accompanied the party who attended the Laceyfield-Smith wedding.

The correspondent from Bryantown was surely right in his forecast and the wave of matrimony would "even extend as far as Pea Ridge."

Mrs. James Graves, who has been on a visit to her invalid mother, Mrs. J. C. Tracey, has returned to her home in Shelby.

Sorghum grinding and cooking has been the fashionable employment lately. It is about over now.

Rock mashing is still in vogue.

Little Florence, the adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob A. J. J., was quite sick this week.

Little Frank Edge shot a squirrel last week weighing nearly ten pounds and measuring from the tail to nose 34 inches. It was shown to several old hunters who said that they had never seen so large a one before. Frank is a sure shot.

Master Chester Dennis, who had played at school this week, fell into the party-dug well, near the schoolhouse, hurting himself. This well ought to be finished at once, and a new pump placed in it, so that the children would have water without going so far, sometimes over a mile.

Owing to whooping cough and fever, our school is rather short of scholars now. Every one unless in praise of our sensible, practical and popular young teacher, Miss Naomi Clark.

CORN SHOW.

Col. Lon B. Nall, State Commissioner of Agriculture, who is chairman of the Committee on Agriculture and Horticulture Exhibits for the Kentucky Exhibit Association, has announced that there will be a corn show limited to the crop grown in Livingston and adjoining counties and shown by grower, on the second day of the Farmers' Institute, to be held at Goodhope schoolhouse, in Livingston county, November 27 and 28, under the auspices of the Livingston Farmers' Club and State Bureau of Agriculture. The premiums will be paid in cash by Col. Nall. There are three cash prizes for best white and best yellow or mixed corn, ranging from $2 to $5, making a total of $20 in premiums. The samples will be turned over to the Livingston County Committee of the Kentucky Exhibit Association at the World's Fair in St. Louis next year. On the first day of this Farmers' Institute, there will be an open discussion of the World's Fair exhibit from Kentucky.

Young Plants

Every farmer knows that some plants grow better than others. Soil may be the same and seed may seem the same but some plants are weak and others strong.

And that's the way with children. They are like young plants. Same food, same home, same care but some grow big and strong while others stay small and weak.

Scott's Emulsion offers an easy way out of the difficulty. Child weakness often means starvation, not because of lack of food, but because the food does not feed.

Scott's Emulsion really feeds and gives the child growing strength.

Whatever the cause of weakness and failure to grow—Scott's Emulsion seems to find it and set the matter right.

THE CRITERION FOR NOVEMBER.

The Criterion has pleasantly embodied the charm of the Thanksgiving festival in its November issue. The cover designs in colors, by John Ceell Clay, is a dainty piece of work, and symbolic of harvest time; and the character of the contents is suited to the season. Among the special articles most worthy of note we find a clean-cut, authoritative exposition of the Building of the Balkan States by Charles Johnston; The White House—its Mistresses and Memories, by Daisy Fitzhugh Ayres, a study of four of the famous "first ladies of the land"; Thomas Carlyle, by Gen. James Grant Wilson; and an account of the historic old Mott House of Sleepy Hollow fame, by Minna Irving. Many unusually bright, clever stories grace this number of the Criterion, notably—A Public Thanksgiving, by Harriet Prescott Spofford; J. T. Bishop's humorous account of Policeman Flynn's Golden Wedding; and a tragic French-Canadian sketch, La P' title, by Clara Hicks. The customary readable reviews of new publications, some good poetry, and light sketches make up an admirable number of this very progressive and up-to-date magazine.

A WOMAN'S COMPLEXION.

It is rank foolishness to attempt to remove sallowness or greasiness of the skin by the use of cosmetics or "local" treatment, as advocated by the "beauty doctors." The only safe and sure way that a woman can improve her complexion is by purifying and enriching the blood, which can only be accomplished by keeping the liver healthy and active. The liver is the seat of disease and blood pollution. Green's August Flower acts directly on the liver, cleanses and enriches the blood, purifies the complexion. It also cures constipation, biliousness, nervousness, and induces refreshing sleep. A single bottle of August Flower has been known to cure the most pronounced and distressing cases of dyspepsia and indigestion. New trial size bottle, 25 cents; regular size, 75 cents. A NEW "ROSALIND" FOR AMERICA.

Manager Shipman Introduces an English Actress of Note.

In England where the plays of Shakespeare have been until the last year or two much more popular than here in America, every actor or actress of prominence excels in portraying the immortal William's delightful characters. This is easily explained. When a "Star" goes on tour in the English provinces it is not in a one-piece play, but in a Repertoire of plays, and the number always includes one or more of the Shakespearean drama, as a consequence, when an American manager wants a "Juliet," "Hamlet," "Viola" or "Rosalind" he has to go to England, as the field in America is as yet very limited. This is particularly true of woman "stars" and still more true of women capable of playing "Rosalind" in "As You Like It." When Manager Clara Frohman and Ben Greet made the magnificent open air revival of "As You Like It" last summer, an English star, Edith Wynne Matheson, played "Rosalind," and now Manager Ernest Shipman has another English "star," Miss Camille Reynolds on tour playing "Rosalind." In this season's "As You Like It" Co., which we will have the good fortune to see on Wednesday, Nov. 4.

Miss Reynolds belongs to a family celebrated not only in her native land, but throughout the entire English-speaking world, as she is a direct descendant of G. W. M. Reynolds, the celebrated author of the still more celebrated series of novels, "The Mysteries of the Court of London," which are now among the English classics, but which, when first produced, created a terrible sensation as they were an exposure of the English Court of George III. Miss Reynolds is justly proud of her English ancestry and the members of her company are thoroughly familiar with the works of her great ancestor. The little lady is very popular in London and "the provinces," as they call every place outside of London town, and has had the honor of appearing before England's beloved sovereign, the late Queen Victoria.

CRUTCHER & SIMPSON

DEVIL'S AUCTION.

EUROPEAN VAUDEVILLE HEAD-LINERS.

For the Twenty-Second Edition of "The Everlasting Devil's Auction."

Manager Chas. H. Yale has, through his European agents, secured for the twenty-second edition of "The Everlasting Devil's Auction," which appears at the Capital Theatre, Saturday, Oct. 31, two notable specialty features which are expected to exceed by far any novelty acts previously imported by Mr. Yale for his various attractions.

The first of these exclusive importations are the Four Salamousskye—Russian Grotesques—who combine with the most daring and skillful gymnastic feats, a series of ludicrous, pantomimic "fooleries" which being of the unusual order, will prove most entertaining.

The star vaudeville feature, however, of this season's production of "The Devil's Auction" is the Wonderful Family Onri, a famous band of Continental equilibrist, balletancers, jugglers and pantomimists. The family consists of one female and four male artists, and they appear in a novel and most original pantomimic playlet entitled "The Interrupted Supper," in which they introduce a number of sensational feats that are most remarkable for originality of conception and skill of execution. Each member of the "Family" not only entertain singly with unusual feats of the hand and eye, but also introduce what might be termed "ensemble" juggling, some of which borders on the marvelous.

The action of the playlet takes place in a modern Parisian cafe and starts off at a dignified pace. A lady and gentleman come in after the opera for supper and are received with all the ceremony that the French waiters can inject into the reception of presumably well paying patrons. A number of most laughable incidents occur. Then the attendants commence manipulating the various articles upon the supper table. Eventually the patrons join in and everything in the entire cafe—chairs, crockery, bric-a-brac, pictures, food, napkins, table cloths, knives and forks, and even the gigantic supper table itself, have been hurled into the air and made to perform feats while en route. The finale of this marvelous performance is simply indescribable.

"As You Like It"

THE WRESTLING MATCH

"AS YOU LIKE IT."

"As You Like It" is perhaps the most purely ideal of any of Shakespeare's plays. It was written at a period when his brilliant youthful genius shone forth in all its freshness of intellectual superiority, untroubled by the thoughtfulness of mature age.

What a host of portraits, life-like and vivid, are concentrated in the group the poet has poured his Arcadian forest with. How beautifully probable is the whole dramatic action of the play. Where, in the language of Campbell, "Shakespeare has snatched us out of the busy world into a Woodland solitude. He makes us breathe its fresh air, partake its pastoral peace, feast on its vision, admire its bounding wild deer and sympathize with its banished men and simple rustics."

The coming production with Carmilla Reynolds, James Brown and their admirable company of Shakespearean players, which has proven so eminently attractive in the larger cities, is being awaited with the keenest interest by a majority of our leading people, who have been instrumental in securing this attraction.

The rendition of the opera of the "Little Tycoon," at the Opera House on Monday night, for the benefit of the Elks Lodge, was a perfect success. The very best of our splendid corps of local musicians were in the east and they gave evidence of careful and intelligent training.

FREE RECLINING CHAIR CARS.

"The Henderson Route"—Always First.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 29, 1903.

The traveling public will be pleased to learn of the latest innovation in the way of comfort in travel for its patrons, which is now being offered by that most popular railroad "The Henderson Route," which road has been recently termed the "Kentuckian's Official Route to the West and Southwest."

It has just been announced from the general offices of the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis Railway that they now have in service on their night trains between Louisville and St. Louis, Free Reclining Chair Cars, which have just been received from the shops and are a revelation in the car builder's art. The new cars are up-to-date, first-class "palaces of travel" on wheels, and this is only one of the many surprises which are promised the public for World's Fair travel by the Henderson Route.

Among other advantages offered in these highly finished cars, a few of the most important points only are mentioned:

They are solidly vestibuled and are furnished with sixty-four reclining chairs, which are upholstered in beautiful green plush, in addition smoking and toilet rooms, the smoking rooms being finished throughout in leather. They are also fitted up with tripe trucks, which feature will do away with the jerk, jar and bump incident to travel in the ordinary railway coach, and insures a smooth, comfortable ride. This should prove most valuable to the traveler in train service to the traveling public, and we can only suggest that in traveling you "get the Henderson Route habit."

THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT.

To the People of Kentucky:

The representatives of the State Committee, for the purpose of urging upon the voters of Kentucky the proposed amendment to the Constitution, met in Owensboro on last Monday. They were intelligent gentlemen and successful business men of Louisville, and made very strong arguments that could be advanced for the amendment.

It is proposed to amend section 131 of the Constitution by giving power to the General Assembly, by general law, to authorize cities or towns of any class to provide for taxation for municipal purposes on personal property, tangible and intangible, based on income, licenses, or franchises, in lieu of an ad valorem tax thereon.

In plain words, it is a covert attempt to change the whole system of taxation in this State, and to take the franchise of the Commercial Club of Louisville and a few other gentlemen in the State, who have no sympathy with the great mass of the people, and are never so happy as when devising schemes to benefit the few at the expense of the many.

The constitutional method of taxation in Kentucky is absolutely perfect. The genius of the ages has not devised a fairer or more equitable rule. It has received the sanction of the people of this State by a majority of nearly 150,000 votes as well as the approval of the Supreme Court of the United States and of the Court of Appeals of our State. What is this mode?

That all properties shall be taxed alike!

Assessed at its fair cash value, and all corporate property shall pay the same rate of taxation as paid by an individual.

Mr. Wm. A. Robinson, who headed this rising movement, frankly admitted that this principle of taxation was as near perfect as the ingenuity of man could devise and was all right for the State and counties; but strangely contended that it retarded the development of manufacturing growth in the city of Louisville and that a more equitable principle should be stricken from our organic law so far as municipal governments are concerned.

The voters should bear in mind that manufacturing enterprises received the fostering care of this Constitution to prevent this sort of objection by placing it in the power of every municipality to free new enterprises of this sort from all taxation for the period of five years.

The intelligent people of this Commonwealth know that this is not the real object of the promoters of this change in the Constitution. The ultimate purpose is to do away with this whole system of taxation and re-enact the old laws in our State, so that the tangible property shall bear all the burdens, whilst the corporate and intangible property will escape proportional and just taxation; that Louisville may be exempt from taxation, as she has done, for several years, and twenty millions of dollars of her city property and impose that and other additional burdens upon the tax hearer in other sections of the State.

Let this amendment be incorporated for Louisville and every other city and town will be forced to take advantage of the general law to protect themselves from that city. It will lodge all this taxing power in the hands of irresponsible, if not corrupt, aldermen and councilmen, when home rule will be a farce and the general law will be agreed to assume complete mastery of the entire State and all her municipalities.

The new constitution has been in operation but a few years; it should not be amended in haste. The courts have decided every questionable point in favor of the people. Under it the State has prospered unprecedentedly. Near 2,000 corporations have organized within the last few years with capital exceeding $110,000,000, paying to the State a tax of more than $100,000! By giving a quietus by voting this amendment down in November, taxes can speedily be lowered, and the burdens of government will then, like the dew of heaven, rest gently upon us all.

I would call upon the great common people of Kentucky—the merchant, the farmer, the wage earner—to be on guard against the machinations of the enemy of their homes and firesides. They have as great an interest in the question as the people of Louisville. A majority of the votes cast for or against the amendment will decide it. If you vote no, you cannot be re-submitted to annoy and perplex you for at least five years.

Though a private citizen, I have the interest of this Commonwealth at heart, and I would be untrue to myself, to the people who have slightly honored me in the past and the State that give me birth, if I did not give this warning cry.

MOTHERS.

Who would keep their children in good health, should watch for the first signs of indigestion and remove them with White's Cream Vermifuge. It is the children's best tonic. It gets digestion at work so that mother food does them good, and they grow up healthy and strong. 25c at Paul B. Weitzel's.

.. DEATHS ..

KALTENBRUN—In this city, on Tuesday Mr. Vincent Kaltenbrun, aged 73 years, of dropsy.

Mr. Kaltenbrun was one of our most substantial and respected German citizens. He had been a resident of this city for about 50 years, and lived by frugality and industry, accumulated a comfortable estate.

He was a consistent member of the Episcopal Church.

He leaves an aged and devoted wife and two children (Dr. V. Kaltenbrun and Mrs. L. B. Welsenburgh) to mourn his death.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. B. Chinn, on Thursday morning, at 10:30 o'clock, from the family residence on Main street, after which the remains were laid to rest in our cemetery.

MEER—In New Albany, Ind., on Wednesday, Mr. Cloudas Meer, aged 48 years.

Mr. Meer was the son of the late Mr. B. F. Meer, Sr., and a brother of Mrs. Richard Church, of this city.

He leaves a wife and two daughters to mourn his death.

The remains were brought to this city and interred in the family lot in our cemetery.

WATSON—In Lexington, on Saturday night, Master Harry Todd Watson, son of Mr. James L. Watson and wife, of that city, was killed by being accidentally shot.

Young Watson was a bright and manly young fellow. His mother was Miss Mary Hannah Todd, daughter of the late Capt. H. I. Todd and wife. The little man was suffering like a hero, even exalted his companions from all blame and made them good-bye.

The tenderest sympathy is felt for the bereft by a large circle of relatives and friends here.

TOOTH BRUSH EXTRAVAGANCE

LIES IN BUYING THE cheap brushes. In tooth brushes, economy comes in at least a medium quality. We can sell you a brush for ten cents that is an actual bargain. But it's wiser to pay more. Then you get reliable material and construction. You get brushes that will actually save dental bills. They are invariably worth all or more than we ask for them. Have brushes at 55 cents that we guarantee to give entire satisfaction or will give you a new brush. Such a brush always represents economy.

AWFUL ACCIDENTAL DEATH.

An alarm at 11:35, on Thursday night, called the department to the office of Messrs. Ira and W. H. Julian, located in the old Yeoman building on St. Clair street, opposite the Courthouse, where it was found that Mr. W. H. Julian, who roomed in the building, had overturned an oil lamp and thus ignited the floor of his room. Mr. Julian was burned on his stomach, side and breast, his body lying on top of the lamp.

The fire had burned through the floor into the ceiling of the big furniture and undertaking establishment of Messrs. R. Rogers & Sons.

The blaze was soon extinguished and the loss to the building was not very serious. However, the damage to the big stock of fine furniture, carpets, etc., amounted to some $2,000 or $3,000.

Mr. Julian was one of the best-read and clearest-headed lawyers of this section of the State, and, while so, he was so modest and retiring that many would not realize his ability as an attorney.

He was a graduate of the Louisville Law school, and was at the front of the strong bar of this city.

Owing to an accident of pretty much the same character, Mr. Julian had once before come near to death, and his left arm was maimed for life.

Mr. Ira Julian, his brother and partner, was at the residence of his cousin, Mr. John E. Miles, where he had been confined to bed with a very serious illness, and had just begun to recuperate. Owing to his feeble condition, Dr. Chinn deemed it best not to notify him of his brother's death.

Coroner L. S. Graham was present and viewed the body, after which it was prepared for burial by Messrs. Rogers & Sons. The coroner's inquest was held yesterday morning and a verdict returned in accord with the facts.

Mr. Julian was a member of a large and influential family, and will be sincerely mourned by many friends.

The funeral took place from the residence of his cousin, Mr. John E. Miles, at 2:30 o'clock, on yesterday, the services being conducted by Rev. Geo. Darsie, after which the remains were laid away in the family lot in our cemetery.

DANGEROUSLY HURT.

The old adage that misfortunes never come singly had another illustration on Saturday.

It will be remembered that Mr. Albert Rogers, of the Farmdale neighborhood, recently lost his only son, a bright and promising young man (with typhoid fever). On Saturday last Mr. Rogers was at work in his stable and got too near the "business end" of a mule, when the animal let drive with both hind feet, catching Mr. Rogers in the back, near the backbone, breaking three ribs and bruising his lung.

Dr. U. V. Williams was called in and attended to Mr. Rogers' injuries, which he pronounces very painful and very serious.

The sorrows of this good family have come thick and fast of late. Scarcely a year ago they lost a splendid young girl, just budding into womanhood, with typhoid fever; again this year, as stated above, the loss of their only son, one of the finest young fellows in the neighborhood; and now this bad accident crowns the column.

The many friends of the family sincerely sympathize with them in their deep sorrows.

LATEST FASHION NOTES.
Gown of New Thin Chiffon Velvet.

A handsome gown is developed of the new thin chiffon velvet. This is elaborately trimmed with crepe de Chine hand-embroidered with Corticelli filo silk. Embroidery on costumes is daily growing in popularity. The crepe de Chine extends out over the shoulder, giving the broad, sloping effect. Bands of the crepe de Chine are inset on the bodice, sleeves, and skirt, reaching on the latter down to the hemline, which also is embroidered to correspond with the waist. The sleeves are very full just below the elbow, with deep cuffs, also hand embroidered.

In selecting gowns for street wear it is well to have two tailor-made suits. One of these should be very plain, with some times two skirts, one short and one long. On a more elaborate suit may be passementeries, cordings, stitchings, and facings of white or color, also gold or silver buttons. All of these various forms of trimmings seem to be growing in popularity.

DO GOOD—IT PAYS.

A Chicago man has observed that. Good deeds are better than real estate deeds—some of the latter are worthless. Act kindly and gently, show sympathy and lend a helping hand. You can not possibly lose by it. Most men appreciate a kind word and encouragement more than substantial help. There are persons in this community who might truthfully say: "My good friend, cheer up." A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will rid you of your cold, and there is no danger whatever from pneumonia when you use that medicine. It always cures. You know it, for it has helped me more than many a time. Sold by all druggists.

ARRESTED!
Officer Wingate Thompson Caught an Intruder Just in Time.

It is important to make an arrest, if possible, before a crime is committed. A Frankfort policeman who arrested buckknee and other kidney troubles before it was too late, tells how to make the arrest. Wingate Thompson, police officer, of 29 Murry St., says: "Ordinary buckknee is sufficient to torment the average mortal, but when there is added to it trouble with the kidney secretions which embarrasses you during the day and breaks your sleep at night, it is no wonder the sufferer is miserable and welcomes the means he employs to get relief. It is hard enough for any one to endure all such suffering and misery, but for one as heavy as myself it comes doubly hard. It was not until I learned about Doan's Kidney Pills that I found a remedy that would do just what was claimed for it. I procured a box of the pills at J. W. Gayle's drug store and its use corrected the kidney secretions, relieved the dreadful itching in my back and helped me in every way. There is no need to have any doubt about Doan's Kidney Pills. They do exactly as represented."
